Dear Mr. Baco:

We cordially invite the National Association of Romanian Bars to become a Cooperating Entity for the ABA International Law Section 2020 Annual Meeting under the theme of “Empowerment”. The Annual Meeting is taking place April 21-24, 2020 at the New York Downtown Marriott in New York City. To learn more about the meeting, visit: www.ambar.org/intlaw2020annual.

The ABA International Law Section is the leader in the development of policy in the international arena, the promotion of the rule of law and the education of international law practitioners. The Section brings together lawyers from around the globe to focus on international legal issues, promote the rule of law, and provide education, policy, publishing and practical assistance related to cross-border activity. Our more than 11,000 members hail from more than 100 countries around the world, providing an unparalleled network of international legal expertise, worldwide referral sources, and international business development opportunities.

This Meeting offers attendees a tremendous opportunity to empower themselves, both personally and professionally, to deal successfully with the demands on our profession today. Leading experts will offer insights on cutting-edge strategies and trends across some 75 of the hottest topics in both public and private international law, including dispute resolution, finance, AI, corporate governance and M&A, corporate social responsibility, FinTech, migration/immigration, white collar criminal, individual rights, cybersecurity, trade, energy and environment, national security, and much more. For the first time, we will be offering a full day of soft skills programming. There will also be numerous opportunities to network and have fun.

Participating as a Cooperating Entity with the International Law Section is a non-financial arrangement and simply entails publicizing the meeting to your members through your newsletters, email, website, mailing lists or social media.

As a Cooperating Entity, your organization will also:

- Benefit from the same discounted registration rates offered to ABA International Law Section Members;
- Receive recognition on the Meeting website, program brochure, and social media; and
- Have an opportunity to display promotional literature during the Meeting in the Meeting exhibit area.

If your organization is interested in becoming Cooperating Entity, please reply to intlawmeetings@americanbar.org and provide us with your organization’s logo in a high resolution .jpg for inclusion in the Meeting promotion, as stated above.

We look forward to your partnership for the 2020 Annual Meeting.

Best regards,
Lisa Ryan
Chair, ABA International Law Section
